Luncheon

Thursday, March 23rd, 2017

Fresh from the legal battlefield where he successfully defended the free speech of conservative Ben Shapiro against Texas "Clock Boy," Kurt Schlichter will regale us at our March luncheon with his sharp wit, wisdom, and take-no-prisoners attitude. Former stand-up comic, former Army Colonel, current novelist, columnist and attorney, Kurt engages friend and foe daily through Twitter badinage - always emerging victorious. No one gets the better of Kurt Schlichter.

Last fall Kurt released his sixth book, Peoples Republic, and in recent weeks has written articles entitled, "Shoving Alinsky's Rules for Radicals Right Back in the Left's Ugly Face," "The Left Hates You; Act Accordingly," "Why California's Silly Secession Scheme Can't Succeed," and presciently predicted "For Democrats, 2017 Will Be The Year of Living Stupidly." You will have your chance to hear his take on the current state of events in California and the national scene, and pick his fulgurating brain about how to defeat the Left. Kurt will share stories, insights, and battle plans while making you laugh and challenging your mind. You do not want to miss this engaging, entertaining, and enlightening presentation!
